Dear
Friend

Join us as we unite with more than 60 other cities across the country to stand up and reclaim the promise of public education.

National Day of Action Our Schools, Our Solutions

Join PCAPS and our allies across Pennsylvania in a day of action to reclaim public education as our nation's gateway to democracy and racial and economic justice!

WHEN: Monday, December 9th at 4:30pm (rally begins)

WHERE: Governor Corbett's Philly Office
200 S. Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19102

We will then march, arriving at our destination at 5:30pm at Loop Capital Markets 2 Penn Center (15th St/JFK), Philadelphia, PA 19102

A powerful contingent of youth, parents, community organizations, and labor unions will rally outside Gov. Tom Corbett's Philadelphia office in coordination with partners in Pittsburgh, followed by a march to the corporate office of Loop Capital, an Illinois bank that has contributed to the privatizing of schools in Chicago and handed out bad interest loans that have crippled Philadelphia's school system. The union-community alliance is fighting to restore statewide education funding, establish a new equitable education funding formula in 2014, and demand that Loop Capital pay back the bad loans.

P.S. Save the date: Thursday December 12th at 3:45pm. Continuing the momentum from the National Day of Action, join students, parents, teachers and concerned community members for a Northeast Philadelphia regional rally to stand up for a fully funded, equitable, quality education.

What: North East Philadelphia Rally

When: Thursday, December 12th at 3:45pm

Where: Roosevelt Mall- Corner of Bustleton and Cottman Avenues

Why: Because we need to stop the overcrowded class rooms, lack of resources and staff and other problems that result from a lack of proper funding. We need to insure access to a fairly funded, quality education for all children!
